1 Another useless vision loses colour in the rain,
It surely wasn't real:
I was beaten by the strain,
I have never learned to trust the things I feel.

2 Another worthless poem drifts away into the sky,
Lost upon the air:
What will become of you and I?
I have never learned to live with no-one there.

Br If I could look around and find you gone,
I'm sure I'd think that justice had been done:
The days that made the difference were far too long:
Ah but longer still the better days to come.

3 Another futile hero clenches fists to ease the pain
Stained upon his brow:
But all his efforts are in vain,
I have never needed help like I do now,
I have never needed help like I do now,
I have never needed help like I do now,
I have never needed help like I do now.
