VERSE 1

21	Dm >>> C7	F >>> C7	Dm >>> C7	Am
	Cheerio then,	lady of one	night;	In
25	C	C7	C7	Bb >>> C
	just one hour the	well's already	dry;	And
29	Dm >>> C7	F >>> Gm	Am	C7
	silent now for	fear of sounding	trite,	I
33	C	Dm7	C >>> Bb	Am7
	step outside your	door to say good -	night;	I
37	Bb >>> Am	Bb >>> Am	Gm >>> F	Dm >>> Em
	trust you took to -	day your daily	bread;	For
41	Dm >>> Dm7	Dm >>> Gm	Am >>> Gm	C7
	I had come pre-	pared for so much	less;	And
45	Gm >>> Am7	Gm >>> C	Dm >>> C	Am >>> Bb
	though I never	doubted what you	said;	You
49	C7	C7 >>> Dm	C7 >>> Bb	Gm >>> Am
	must stay	meaning-	less;

			So (>>> verse 2)

v1 Cheerio, then, lady of one night,
 In just one hour the well's already dry;
 And silent now, for fear of sounding trite,
 I step outside your door to say goodbye:
 I trust you took today your daily bread,
 For I had come prepared for so much less;
 And though I never doubted what you said,
 You must stay meaningless.

v2 So cheerio, my lady of one night,
 We kept the simplest bargain rather well;
 An ego traded for an appetite,

Or was it all vice-versa, who can tell?
And though I know there's nothing more to do,
That we are just two strangers once again,
I hope that deep in me, and deep in you,
Still something will remain.

v3 I'm grateful, then, my lady of one night,
But rather feel that, should I take the chance
To peek into that diary that you write,
I'd leave without that glimmer of romance;
For after this, if I but only knew
The paltry score for effort that you gave,
What little love I may have had for you
Would turn within its grave.
