VERSE 1:

6	D	D	A7	D	D
	as I	part with	what remains of	us,
11	Em	G	Em	A7	A7
	Slipping through my	fingers in the	texture of the	sand;	I
16	D	D	A7	D	D
	lift my head to	watch the phantom	finally disapp -	ear;	But
21	Em	G	A7	A7
	find instead the	real you standing	here;	And
25	D	D	A7	D	D
	startled by your	warmth, and by the	firmness of your	hand,	I
30	Em	G	A7	A7
	finally turn a	puzzle on its	head,	Acc-
	D	G	G	A7	A7
34	cepting, as we	climb towards the	cliff-top over	head,	That
	D	A7	D	D
39	you and I were	only ever	thus.....
43	D	D	D

And as I part with what remains of us,
Slipping through my fingers in the texture of the sand,
I lift my head to watch the phantom finally disappear;
But find instead the real you standing here;
And startled by your warmth, and by the firmness of your hand,
I finally turn a puzzle on its head,
Accepting, as we climb towards the cliff-top overhead,
That you and I were only ever thus.....
