----	----	----------	----	----------

- v1 That laugh is madness of a special kind;
The laugh of one who's free to pick and choose,
To opt for who will win and who will lose.
- v2 They strike fools where it hurts most, in the mind;
Not knowing for a minute what they've done,
Not realising how the tears will run.
- v3 Yet those who suffer most are also blind;

They stake their lives upon a single throw,
Not seeing that elsewhere the odds are low.

v4 For others, far too lonely to ever say No,
To ever break a heart with cocksure ease,
Or pull the strings and feel the ego grow,
Are also those who've never said Yes Please.
