FINALE:

117	G
-----	---

v1 When I was lost you shone your light
 To guide me from that blinding night,
 You warmed me with your wine and kept me fed;

v2 You gave me strength to carry on,
 Comfort `til the night had gone,
 A gentle breast on which to lay my head;

Bridge And when the night wind blew
 Outside, you pulled me through
 In sanctuary and warmth within
 The confines of your bed;

v3 And even now when I can hear
 The sounds of night I sense you near,
 You take my hand and keep me in good stead;

v4 For though your time lies far behind,
 I keep you living in my mind,
 A guardian angel there to ease my dread.
