v1 Drifting calm beneath the sunny skies,
Traversing lazy pools where salmon rise
To catch the summer day that never dies;

v2 Paddling soft along the gentle stream, Rippling patterns where the waters gleam,
Within a never-ending childhood dream;

Br 1 The dream that one day unravels,
The innocence some day to lose,
Still locked in the lightness of travels
Of canoes;

Br 2 The canyons that tower above us,
The rapids somewhere ahead,
Still lost in a world that will love us
Instead;

v3 Time's immortal now, and all is dreams,
Sunshine plays with us in gentle themes,
And dances where the summer water gleams.
