v1 Hold on, we're coming with you now,
Wait there, we're coming too:
My friend, did you think that we would fail to stick with you?

v2 Take heart, we're there beside you now,
Be glad, you're not alone:
My friend, did you think we'd let you face this on your own?

ch1 We'll stand together, Pooling our strength once more,
Sharing our love, with our arms open wide,
We'll be there fighting,
Just like it was before,
Fighting for you, once again by your side.

ch2 We'll stay beside you,
Making you strong again,
Fuelling the courage that you hold in your heart,
We'll stand and face it,
Victory ours to gain,
Holding together, now no longer apart

v3 Have courage, we're walking with you now,
Be brave, be of good cheer,
My friend, did you think that we would simply leave you here?
