v1 Did you hear the silence?
Did you sense the still?
Did you catch the whisper
In the shrill?
Or were these quieter moments,
Where kindness could prevail,
Battered into nothing,
Remorseless by the gale?

Ch1 The wind was howling

In circles through our hair,
As if to make complete this mad despair.

v2 Did you spot the rainbow?
Did you find the dry?
Did you view the colours
In the sky?
Or were those brighter moments
Where hope could take new form,
Washed away to nothing,
Bedraggled by the storm?

Ch2 The rain was falling
In rings around our eyes,
As if to make complete this sad demise.

v3 Did you touch the sunshine?
Did you sense the glow?
Did you watch the thawing
Of the snow?
Or were these warmer moments,
Where love could strike out bold,
Set frozen into numbness

Ch3 The ice was forming
To frostbite round our feet,
As if to make this wretchedness complete.
