v1 Better we were beating as one heart,
Than out of sync, each separate, apart:

Ch1 And even if now we continue to feel
The love we're insistent will last,
I can't help but notice, it's started to peel,
The sellotape holding us fast.

v2 Better we were joined to share the strain,
Than each alone, facing the rain:

Ch2 And even if now we continue to say
We'll hold through the stormiest weather,
I can't help but spot that it's started to fray,
The stitching that binds us together.

v3 Better we were us, than me and you –
Together, there is nothing we can't do:

ch3 And even if now we continue to stick
To the lies we so proudly embrace,
I just can't but notice, we've started to pick
At the plasters which hold them in place.
