v1 All the times she stood by him,
The courage that it took,
And all the things he might have seen
Had he but paused to look;

v2 The untold will and fortitude
With which she met the task,
And all the things he could have guessed Had he but thought to ask;

br1 Memories
That linger deep Within the past;

br2 Doubts that tease,
And stir from sleep,
Awake at last;

v3 All the love she gave to him, Imparted tirelessly,
And all the things he should have known
Had he but stopped to see.
