v1 The smarter they come,
The dafter they fall,
Confused and bemused
By the weight of it all,
From measureless wisdom
To no sense at all,
And down they fall.

v2 The taller they stand,
The more they look small,
Tearful and fearful,
When backed to the wall,
From infinite courage
To wimps one and all,
And down they fall.

v3 The slicker they ride,
The quicker they stall,
Shuddering, juddering
Down to a crawl,
From well-oiled assurance
To broken withal,
And down they fall.
