v1 Lost in the excuses of a plan that went awry,
 A well-rehearsed and flippant reason why,
 A reason why that compensates for all that slipped away,
 And rebuilds muddy castles in the cesspools of the clay.

v2 Deep within the alibis of a scheme that just fell through,
 An asinine and cheery Yes, Can Do,
 A Yes, Can Do that promises there's nothing out of reach,
 And rebuilds flimsy castles on the quicksand of the beach.

v3 Rising from the traces of whatever lingers still,
 The same resolve, the same old mindless will,
 A mindless will that circumvents the errors of the past,
 And rebuilds endless castles, each on the rubble of the last.
