-----	---------	--------	----

v1 Stomping through the puddles, arm in arm, Laughing through the showers like lovers do:
 Every spring flower growing,
 Every young heart glowing,
 Glowing in the rain with you.

v2 Chasing through the long grass, flushed and red,
 Lost within the games that lovers play:
 Every sunlight streaming,
 Every fond heart dreaming,
 Dreaming every sunlit day.

v3 Strolling through the forest, hand in hand,
 Tramping through the piles of fallen leaves:
 Every colour turning,
 Every heart still burning,
 Burning on the changing breeze.

v4 Watching from the window, side by side,
 Holding on to love the way we do,
 Every snowflake forming,
 Every heart still warming,
 Warming us the winter through.
